This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on the Motion filed by counsel for Palmetto of Richland County, LLC (“PRC”) for Appointment of a Hearing Officer and Request for Prehearing Conference, along with Objection to Lawrence Petition to Intervene, in Docket No. 2012-273-S regarding PRC’s Application for Acquisition of the City of Columbia Sewer Collection System and for Establishment of Service Area and Rates and Charges.

Section 58-3-40(C)(1) states that upon the request of any party or any commissioner, the commission may employ a hearing officer who may hear and determine procedural motions or other matters not determinative of the merits of the proceedings. Under (C)(2), the hearing officer has full authority, subject to being overruled by the Commission, to rule on questions concerning the conduct of the case and other matters. Under (C)(3), the officer must be an attorney qualified to practice in all courts of this State with a minimum of eight years' practice experience.

We find that B. Randall Dong, Esquire, meets these qualifications, and we hereby appoint Mr. Dong as hearing officer in Docket No. 2012-273-S. As hearing officer in this proceeding, Mr. Dong shall rule on appropriate matters in the case and dispose of procedural and evidentiary matters for the proceeding pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. Section 58-3-40 (Supp. 2011).

Simultaneously with the filing of its Motion, PRC filed an Objection to Lawrence Petition to Intervene.<sup>1</sup> PRC asserts in its Objection that Lawrence's position for intervention in the proceeding is not determinable from his Petition to Intervene. To assist in making a determination of Lawrence's position, PRC suggests that a prehearing conference be held before a hearing officer in accordance with 26 S. C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-839.

We find that PRC's Objection should be held in abeyance until such time as a prehearing conference may be conducted by the Hearing Officer concerning Lawrence's Petition to Intervene.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. B. Randall Dong, Esquire, is hereby appointed as hearing officer in Docket No. 2012-273-S regarding the Application of Palmetto of Richland County, LLC for Acquisition of the City of Columbia Sewer Collection System and for Establishment of Service Area and Rates and Charges. As Hearing Officer, we direct Mr. Dong to
